

DEED OF GIFT

Commodore C. King Brugman Perpetual Trophy

For the purpose of promoting interest and competition in the principal ocean predicted log contests in the waters adjacent to the Southern California and Baja California Coast, the Southern California Cruiser Association (SCCA) offers in competition a perpetual trophy to be known as the Commodore C. King Brugman Perpetual Trophy. The following are declared to be the terms and conditions as to competition for and for ownership and custody of the trophy.

1. The Trophy shall belong to and be a perpetual trophy of the Southern California Cruiser Association. It shall never become the property of any other association, club or any person.
2. The Trophy shall be awarded to the owner of the yacht with the best score of the year in Class A predicted log contests. The series shall include a maximum of eight contests, six of which shall be mandatory. Each contest to be sanctioned by the SCCA and no less than four contests to be sponsored by a member yacht club. The list of contests included in the series shall be published prior to December 1 of the year preceding. In the event no list is published by December 1 the same contests in effect will continue through the next year. It is intended that such contests as the Craig, Lipton, and other long distance contests be included in the log contest series, but it is not mandatory.
3. The method of scoring for the series shall follow the basic point system approved by the SCCA. Yachts other than Class A shall not be included in the scoring system and only those yachts entering the minimum six contests shall be counted, but a DSQ shall not be counted as competing in a contest. Scores from the best six contests of the eight contest series shall be used.
4. A medallion, trophy or other suitable memento shall be awarded to the owner of any yacht starting in six of the series contests. Similarly, a medallion, trophy, or other suitable memento shall be awarded to the owner of each yacht for at least the first three places. The winner's trophy shall be a significant take-home trophy similar to the silver tray, cocktail shaker, and six cocktail cups presented in prior years.
5. The Staff Officers of the SCCA may permit the owner of the winning yacht to have custody of the perpetual trophy provided the trophy is suitable displayed and protected in the winner's yacht club facility, or he may elect to have the trophy in some other custody suitably displayed. Under no circumstances shall the trophy be in the custody of the individual winner.
6. The winner of this trophy shall be entitled to receive and display the number "1" cruiser contestant number.
7. No individual may win this trophy more than two years consecutively and after doing so shall not be eligible to again win in consecutive years.
8. Any matters not covered hereunder shall be decided by the Flag Officers of the SCCA and the immediate three Past commodores and the Senior Staff Commodore.
